

TECHNICAL FILE

VIDEO CAMERA COVER ND-2002

NILYMED single use equipment covers are designed to provide protection and improve the infection control during the different procedures in the operating room.

The diverse ranges of covers are used on a large range of machines, Medical equipment and light handles during the surgical procedures.

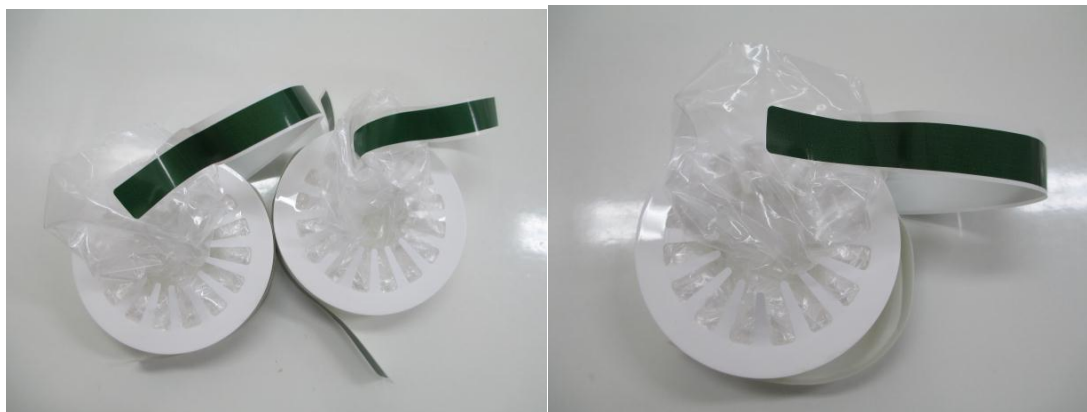

The covers are single use, supplied in sterile packaging and they don't come in contact with the patient during the surgical procedures.

The products are made of polyethylene and manufactured in clean rooms environments under the Medical industry standards ISO 13485:2012 and CE Mark.

- Single use sterile cover for use during surgical procedures.
- Special cover for video camera.
- Latex Free.
- Easy and friendly to use.

Camera cover photos:

ND-2002

Product Description:

Product	Video Camera Cover ND-2002
The function	The Camera Cover is used in the operating room. Providing a sterile barrier to the cable and probe during laparoscopic surgical procedures.
Product material	The product is made of: Ipethene® LD Polyethylene 323 – Sleeve & strips. TPE 139.001 Natural – ring. Package pouch conform to the TS EN 868-5 standard.
Sterilization method	ETO sterilization.
Shelf life validity	5 years.
Product specification	The product is for single use. Provided with a sterile pack for the operating room. Easy effective draping. Latex free.
Advantages	Providing complete and effective coverage of video camera cable Straps for improved probe fit and security during usage. Telescopically folded. Comprehensive protection and sterility to your costly equipment. Simple covering of camera cover, easy to follow up. Covers are made of high grade clear polyethylene.
Dimensions	15 x 250 cm.