Certificate of Exclusive Distribution

This is to certify that

LM Instruments S.A.
Portos Parque Industrial,
Avenida Calle 24 #95-12 bodega 48,
110911 Bogotá, Columbia ("distributor")

is authorised exclusive distributor for all VBM products in Columbia ("territory"). The distributor is not allowed to sell the products outside the territory or without original VBM packaging.

The distributor is responsible for the promotion, teaching, training, selling, after-sales service, stocking and distribution of all VBM products. He is authorised on behalf of VBM to submit for registration approval with the Health Department in Columbia for the complete range of VBM products.

The distributor is obliged to have in place a system that guarantees full product traceability and will oblige all representatives in the country to have a similar system in place. In case of product defects which could have caused damage to the patients' health, the distributor shall notify VBM in writing immediately after discovery of the defect has been brought to the distributors' attention. If an event is reportable, the distributor will meet the corresponding regulations of the local Health and Regulatory Authorities.

If the distributor carries out translations, these must be made by qualified translators. The review and approval of distributor translations is exclusively carried out by VBM. The translation shall only be used after its approval. VBM will supply the distributor with all necessary literature and instructional material for the purpose of assisting them with the promotion of the products and training of the users in the medical profession.

This certificate is valid until 31.12.2025.

With best regards
